

Testimonials from students:

“I had a wonderful experience with Kevin and Holly. They were both wonderful and they were magnificent instrumentalists and singers. Kevin and Holly are very professional and here are some ways how: they have strong vocals, they work together very well, they both are awesome instrumentalists and they both have lots of talent.” (M. West – Grade 7)

“Kevin and Holly were really cool individuals and a lot of the students really liked them. As professional musicians you could tell they were really experienced and that they loved what they do and I think that’s the best kind of musician.” (D. Bruintjes – Grade 7)

“My thoughts on Kevin and Holly as individuals are: they are very fun, funny, encouraging, understanding people. And as professional musicians, I would say that they are very professional and they really know how to please people by using their music and feelings and actions.” (A. Barlaugh – Grade 7)

“My impression of Kevin and Holly was that they were very brave to be able to get their opinions through to people with their music. I think they are very strong individuals and know what they want from people and how to get it.” (T. Whitwick – Grade 7)

“It surprised me that with Holly’s dulcimer and Kevin’s drumming that it made the brilliant sound it did. I thought they had strong and great vocals. They worked together and they had fantastic rhythm and beat. They should carry on with what they are doing.” (K. Videgain – Grade 7)

“My impression of Kevin and Holly was they are very “go with the flow” people. Very calm, friendly, and they are wonderful musicians. They are very good at what they do and they present it like it was very well rehearsed and they made it look effortless.” (T. Graff – Grade 6)
